

WORD OF THE DAY

WORD OF THE DAY (Jeremiah 23:24)

"Can anyone hide himself in secret places, So I shall not see him?" says the Lord; "Do I not fill heaven and earth?" says the Lord."

MEDITATE ON THIS (Nowhere to hide)

Did you ever play hide and seek when you were growing up? As a child I'm sure many of us loved to play the game of hide and seek. There was something special about being able to escape to hidden and secret places where no one knew where we were. As we got older, this realization that we could be in private spaces often led many to feel that we could indulge in our secret sins, hidden from the purview of God.

However we serve a God who is omnipresent - God is everywhere. In our verse of the day, God speaks and reminds the people that there is nowhere that they can be and have their actions hidden from the sight of God. This should be a sobering encouragement for us that our life is ever before the eyes of God.

I love how the commentary found on BibleStudyTools.com speaks on our verse of the day. It reads, "If a man should hide himself in the most secret and hidden places of the earth, and do his works in the most private manner, so that no human eye can see him, he cannot hide himself or his actions from the Lord, who can see from heaven to earth, and through the darkest and thickest clouds, and into the very bowels of the earth, and the most hidden and secret recesses and caverns of it."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

God is always near to our sins and even nearer to save.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Dear God, thank you for this much needed reminder that you always see us no matter where we are. May this not only quicken us to fear you in holiness, but also cause us to seek you, knowing that you are right there with us. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
